

CAMMIGRES

Cambridge Migration Research Network

New CAMMIGRES Network Seminar Series: 'One O'Clock Research Spotlights'

Starts 19th
January
2016

An exciting programme of short seminars to report on findings and future proposal developments arising from the CAMMIGRES small grant awards that have been supported by the network in the last 12 months. This series is aimed at promoting migration research within the University of Cambridge.

Staff and students welcome.

Seminars will run from 1-1.45pm, B4 Institute of Criminology, Sidgwick Site.

Tea and coffee available from 12.45pm in the foyer

19th Jan - Spotlight on faith and migration

Understanding faith in migrants' lives: challenges & opportunities for social cohesion in a diverse Europe

-Dr Sara Silvestri, POLIS

Conflict or Commonality?: Migration & interfaith relations between Jews, Christians, Muslims in Europe

-Dr Shana Cohen, Dept of Sociology/Woolf Institute

2nd Feb - Politics of Belonging

Attitudes towards immigrants in Europe 2002-2014

- Dr Jeff Miley, Dept of Sociology

tbc - Defining Migrants

Cartography and the migration of peoples in the early modern world.

- Dr William O'Reilly, Faculty of History

www.cammigres.group.cam.ac.uk

contact: msa54@cam.ac.uk