

The Cambridge Migration Society

On the road

-- Seminar series --

Michaelmas, Lent and Easter terms 2015-2016

Starting from the most recent events, this series of seminars will address burning issues regarding current refugee flows, especially in the European context. It will focus on the root causes of the phenomenon and on the solutions that are being put forward by public institutions, NGOs, and academia. It will also pay specific attention to individual issues, regarding human rights of refugees, unaccompanied minors and healthcare.

Cartoon courtesy of Simon Kneebone simonkneebone.com

MICHAELMAS 2015

15 October 2015

Understanding the Refugee Crisis and Looking at Bottom-up Responses

- Dr. John R Campbell (SOAS)
 - Stefan Haselwimmer
- (#refugeesWelcome campaign)

16 November 2015

5 pm, room 11, Faculty of History, Sidgwick site
Refugees Between EU and Turkey

- Dr. Thomas Jeffrey Miley (University of Cambridge)
- Dr Elif Cetin (University of Cambridge)

8 December 2015

5 pm, room 11, Faculty of History, Sidgwick site
Rethinking Refugees: The politics of human rights and the perils of humanitarianism

- Dr. Ruba Salih (SOAS)

LENT TERM 201621 January 2016 6-8pm, Faculty of Law, LG 18

Screening of 'Everyday Borders' followed by Q&A with the film's director, Orson Nava, Dr Georgie Wemyss (University of East London), and Meena Patel from Southall Black Sisters

24 February 2016

Bordering, Human Mobility, and the Production of Illegality

- Dr Nicholas de Genova (King's College London)

26 February 20165 pm, room 11, Faculty of History, Sidgwick site

Refugees' Healthcare

- Dr Erminia Colucci (Queen Mary University of London)
- Dr Clare Shortall (Médecins du Mond)

14 March 20165 pm, room 11, Faculty of History, Sidgwick site

Travelling Alone: Unaccompanied minors on their way to the EU

- Ilona Pinter (The Children's Society)

EASTER TERM 201613 April 2016

The Mediterranean Border

- Dr Leonie Ansems de Vries (King's College London)

28 April 2016

Sub-Saharan Migrants in Morocco: an ethnography of (im)mobility, illegality, and "adventure" in a marginal neighborhood of Rabat

- Sebastien Bachelet (University of Edinburgh)

May 2016 (TBC)

Screening of 'On the Bride's Side' followed by Q&A with the film's director, Gabriele del Grande

To come (2016):

Lecture by Admiral Giuseppe De Giorgi, Chief of the Italian Navy, former Chief of the operation 'Mare Nostrum'