

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

CAMMIGRES Forum

Graduate Migration Reading Group

Due to the current refugee crisis, this term we will be focusing on immigration, Europe and culture. We will be reading the introduction, conclusion and possibly a chapter from the following texts:

Session 1: 14th October 2015

The Politics of Immigration: Contradictions of the Liberal State
by James Hampshire (2013)

Session 2: 4th November 2015

Border Encounters: Asymmetry and Proximity at Europe's Frontiers edited by Jutta Lauth Bacas and William Kavanagh (2013)

Session 3: 18th November 2015

How Immigrants Impact Their Homelands
by Susan Eckstein and Adil Najam (2013)

Please click on the weblink for Book reviews of the above texts.

We will endeavour to circulate texts shortly.

If you are interested in attending, please fill in your details here:

Registration

Sessions are 11am-12.30pm in room B4 at the Institute of Criminology, Sidgwick Site

If you have any questions please email:

Hira Amin: hfa25@cam.ac.uk